Stephanie A. Altig
Deputy Attorney General
Idaho State Police

Dear Ms. Altig,

We have received your letter of July 1, 2014 regarding Idaho's concealed weapons licenses and reciprocity between the States of Idaho and Nebraska.

Since 2009, the State of Nebraska has recognized concealed weapons licenses (3302) issued by the State of Idaho. In the summer of 2013, we reviewed the requirements for obtaining an enhanced concealed weapons license (3302K). The requirements for both the 3302 and 3302K licenses appear to be unchanged since our last review. As such, this office has determined that the requirements to obtain either license meet or exceed the standards established in the Nebraska Concealed Handgun Permit Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 69-2427, et. seq. Nebraska will recognize both 3302 and 3302K licenses.

There are, however, limits to such recognition. The State of Nebraska will only recognize permits issued to persons 21 years of age or older, and recognition of other states' concealed weapons permits is limited to the carrying of a concealed handgun. Unlike Idaho, Nebraska law does not authorize the concealed carrying of any weapon other than a handgun.

If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

JON BRUNING
Attorney General
